Background on
New Title IX
Regulations

Robbins Schwartz

2

Background

- September 22, 2017: U.S. Department of Education released a Dear Colleague Letter formally withdrawing two key Obama-era guidance documents:
 - 2011 Dear Colleague Letter on Sexual Violence

Robbins Schwartz

3

Current Status

- Proposed Title IX Regulations released in November 2018
 - 60-day public comment period yielded over 120,000 comments
- Proposed Final Rules released on May 6, 2020 and published in Federal Register on May 19, 2020
- Effective date: August 14, 2020

Robbins Schwartz

Key Definitions

Robbins Schwartz

11

Title IX Sexual Harassment

Robbins Schwartz

12

Title IX Sexual Harassment: Quid Pro Quo

- When an employee of the college conditions aid, benefits, pay, a position or other opportunities for advancement on an individual's submission to unwelcome sexual conduct.

Robbins Schwartz

13

Title IX Sexual Harassment: "Hostile Environment"

- Unwelcome conduct that a reasonable person would find so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it denies a person equal educational access

- Severe and pervasive and offensive
- Denial of equal educational access

Robbins Schwartz

14

Title IX Sexual Harassment: "Hostile Environment"

- Compare with Title VII definition for workplace hostile environment claims:

- Unwelcome sexual advances and other conduct of a sexual nature having the purpose or effect of interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

Robbins Schwartz

15

Title IX Sexual Harassment: "Hostile Environment"

- Compare with IHRA definition:

- Any conduct of a sexual nature exhibited by an education representative toward a student, when such conduct has the purpose of substantially interfering with the student's educational performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive educational environment.

Robbins Schwartz

16

Robbins Schwartz

21

Key Definitions: Hypothetical

- You receive a report of a student being sexually assaulted by another student on campus.
- Do you need to evaluate the severity, pervasiveness, and offensiveness of the sexual assault?

Robbins Schwartz

22

Key
Definitions:
Hypothetical

Robbins Schwartz

46

“Deliberate
Indifference
Standard”
Under Title IX

- College must respond to allegations of Title IX sexual harassment:
 - Promptly
 - In a manner that is not “clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances”

Robbins Schwartz

47

College
Response:
Definitions

Complainant:

- Individual who is alleged to be the victim of alleged sex-based misconduct

Respondent:

- Individual who is reported to be the perpetrator of alleged sex-based misconduct

Robbins Schwartz

48

Overview of College Response Process

1. Analyze report to determine the appropriate method for processing/reviewing it.

3. Discuss and offer supportive measures.
4. Explain the process for filing a formal complaint.

Robbins Schwartz

49

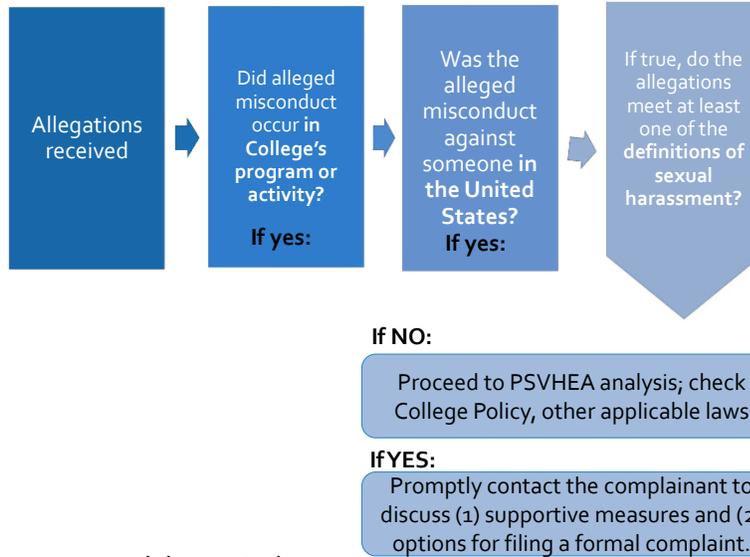

College Response Process

- Step 1: Analyze the Report.
 - Does Title IX apply?
 - Does the Preventing Sexual Violence in Higher Education Act apply?

Robbins Schwartz

50

Title IX: Jurisdiction Analysis

Robbins Schwartz

51

Preventing Sexual Violence in Higher Education Act: Jurisdiction Analysis

Robbins Schwartz

52

College Response Process

 - “Complainant” is defined as the individual who is alleged to be the victim of alleged sex-based misconduct

Robbins Schwartz

53

College Response Process

- Step 3: Discuss and offer supportive measures.
 - Individualized services reasonably available that are non-punitive, non-disciplinary, and not unreasonably burdensome to the other party
 - Designed to ensure equal educational access, protect safety, or deter sexual harassment

Robbins Schwartz

54

College Response Process

Robbins Schwartz

55

Grievance Process for Formal Complaints

Robbins Schwartz

56

Grievance Process for Formal Complaints

Formal complaint:

- Document filed by a complainant or signed by Title IX Coordinator alleging
 - (a) sexual harassment in violation of Title IX and/or
 - (b) sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence or stalking in violation of the PSVHEA.
- At the time of filing a formal complaint, the complainant must be participating in or attempting to participate in the College's education programs or activities, (either as a student or an employee).

Robbins Schwartz

57

Formal Complaint Hypothetical

A student graduates in June. In mid-July, the student contacts the Title IX Coordinator to report that she was sexually harassed by another student the previous February. The student indicates that she would like to file a formal complaint.

- Can the student file a formal complaint?
- What if the student is working as a research assistant for the summer?
- In the event the complainant cannot file a formal complaint, what options does the College have?

Robbins Schwartz

58

Grievance Process: Notice of Allegations

- Must be sent simultaneously to both parties after Title IX Coordinator's receipt of formal complaint.
- Informs the parties of:
 - The grievance process, including informal resolution options
 - The allegations
 - The presumption of non-responsibility on the part of the respondent
 - The parties' right to an advisor
 - The parties' right to inspect and review evidence
 - The Code of Conduct provisions prohibiting knowingly furnishing false information during the grievance process.

Robbins Schwartz

59

Grievance Process: Emergency Removals and Administrative Leave

- Prior to initiating or completing the grievance process in response to a formal complaint, the College may remove a respondent from its education program or activity on an emergency basis.
 - Only permitted where the College has determined, based on an individualized safety and risk analysis, that an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of an individual arising from the allegations of sexual harassment justifies removal.
- College must provide the respondent with notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal.

Robbins Schwartz

60

Grievance Process: Emergency Removals and Administrative Leave

- The College may place an employee on administrative leave during the pendency of the grievance process in response to a formal complaint.

Robbins Schwartz

63

Informal Resolution

- Party may withdraw at any time prior to a resolution
 - Withdrawal triggers resumption of grievance process.
- May include:
 - Mediation
 - Restorative justice
- Not permitted in allegations of employee sexual misconduct toward a student

Robbins Schwartz

64

Consolidation and Dismissal of Formal Complaints

Robbins Schwartz

65

Consolidation of Formal Complaints

- Title IX Coordinator may consolidate formal complaints where the allegations of sex-based misconduct arise out of the same facts or circumstances.

 - Consider “breakout rooms.”

Robbins Schwartz

80

Live Hearings: Advisors

- College advisor appointed if none available
 - 3 business day notice is required.

Robbins Schwartz

81

Issues for Hearing

- Hearing Officer's role is to determine:

Robbins Schwartz

93

Conflicts of Interest & Bias

Robbins Schwartz

94

Conflict of Interest & Bias

Conflict of interest:

- “A situation in which the concerns or aims of two different parties or people are incompatible.”
 - Not: “I know both parties.”

Bias:

- “Prejudice in favor of or against one thing, person, or group compared with another, usually in a way considered to be unfair.”

Robbins Schwartz

95

How to Address Implicit Bias

- Check your implicit bias here: Harvard Implicit Bias Test
- More deliberate or conscious thinking
 - Sometimes called “Staring” (as opposed to “Blinking”)
 - This involves allowing yourself time to fully think through a scenario before coming to a decision/conclusion

Robbins Schwartz

96

How to Address Bias: Create a Checklist

- Create a checklist beforehand
 - For ex: A pre-made checklist of allegations to be proven/disproven
- Decision-making checklists can encourage less biased decisions; they provide an objective framework to assess your thinking¹
- Can be effective in overcoming stereotypes²
- Helps reduce the attention given to biased characteristics that may influence decision-making³

Final Review and Hypothetical

Robbins Schwartz

99

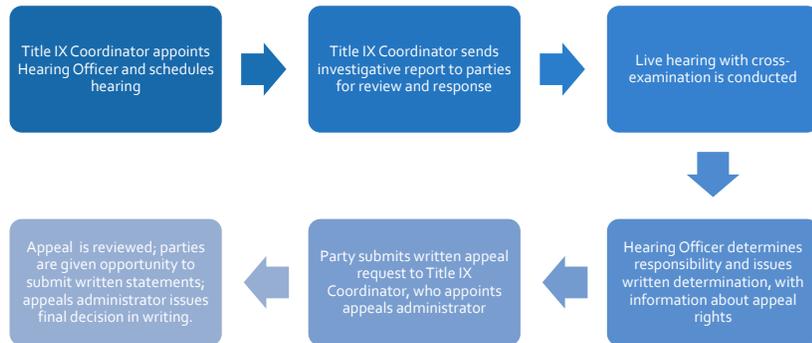

Final Review of Grievance Process (Pre-Hearing)

Robbins Schwartz

100

Final Review of Grievance Process (Hearing + Appeals)

Robbins Schwartz

101

Hypothetical

- Jen, a student, reports to her College advisor that a classmate, Kevin, has been making inappropriate sexual jokes and innuendos.
 - She and Kevin both attended the same virtual summer school course.
 - They were assigned to work on a project together, much of which was to be done on their own time, over Zoom, and required the exchange of personal contact information.
 - After the project was complete, Kevin allegedly called Jen and asked her out. Jen said no.
 - Jen states that Kevin began teasing her on social media and telling all of their mutual friends that Jen "is a prude."

Robbins Schwartz

102

Hypothetical

- The teasing became increasingly more offensive, and he allegedly began making false statements that:
 - Jen is homosexual,
 - She is afraid to date because she is a hermaphrodite, and
 - That Jen sent him sexually explicit photos.
- Jen alleges that Kevin's comments took place over the course of the summer, at various off-campus social distanced class gatherings where the instructor and other students were present.
- Most recently, Kevin and Jen both attended the same party at a house owned by the College's Theater Club, of which Jen is a member.
- At the party, Kevin (who is 21) was drinking. He tried to pressure Jen (who is 19) into drinking as well. Jen reports that Kevin stated, "Some alcohol will allow you to drop your guard, and hopefully, allow me to drop your pants."

Robbins Schwartz

103

Hypothetical

- Jen reports that she told Kevin he was not funny, and to leave her alone.
 - One of Jen's friends allegedly witnessed Kevin trying to pour some of his vodka into Jen's cup when she wasn't looking.
 - According to Jen's friend, when Kevin was caught, he laughed and told her to "Stop cock-blocking me."
- Jen is distraught. Kevin is enrolled in two of the same classes as Jen for the fall 2020 semester. Jen is considering dropping the classes so she will not have to interact with Kevin.
- The College advisor documents her discussion with Jen. What should the College advisor do with these allegations? Discuss.

Robbins Schwartz

104

Hypothetical

- Based on these facts, analyze the jurisdiction under Title IX.
- Reminder:
 - Kevin's behavior began after the completion of their virtual project. He teased her via social media.
 - Kevin's behavior continued at off-campus events where the instructor and other students were present.
 - Kevin's most recent actions were at a house owned by a College-recognized student organization during the first weekend of school.
- Do Kevin's actions constitute Title IX sexual harassment?
- Reminder: Three types of sexual harassment:
 - Quid pro quo harassment by a college employee
 - Unwelcome conduct that a reasonable person would find so severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it denies a person equal educational access
 - Any instance of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking

Robbins Schwartz

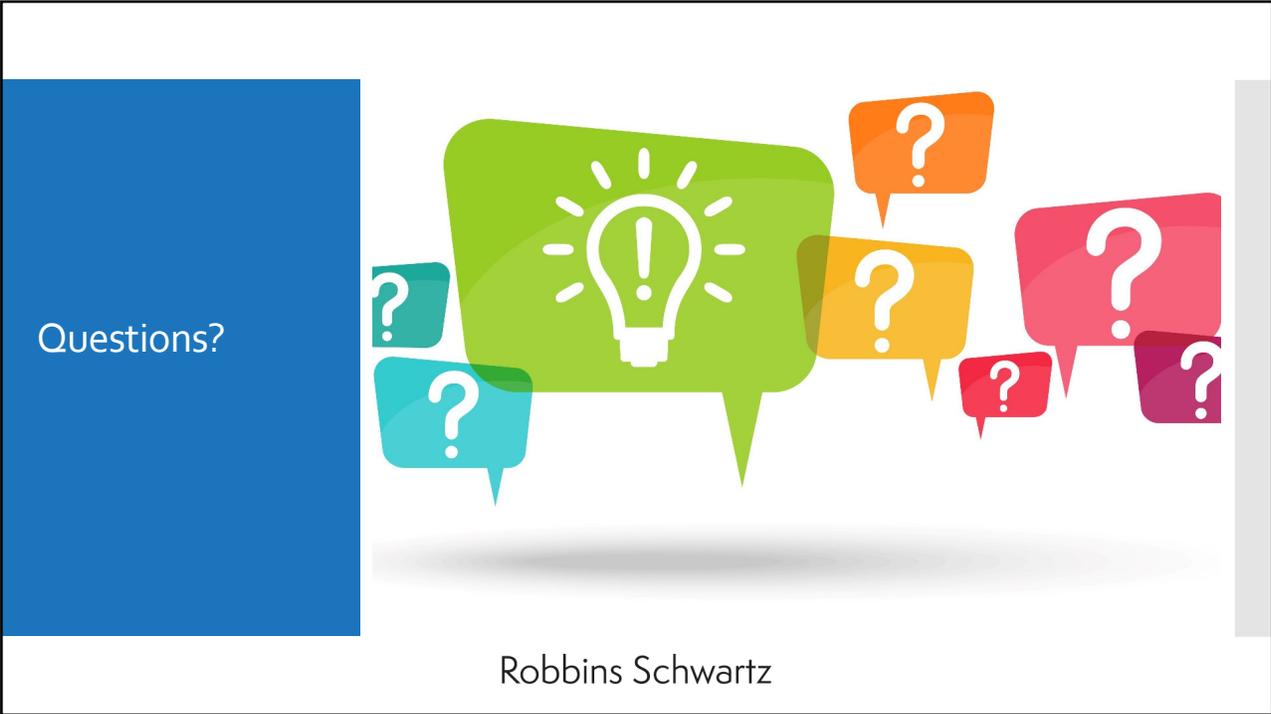

105

Hypothetical

- Jen files a formal complaint. The parties proceed to a live hearing.
 - Can Kevin's advisor ask Jen if she has ever had a sexual relationship with Kevin?
- After a full grievance process, the College's appointed Hearing Officer (who is close friends with the College advisor to whom Jen made her initial report) finds that Kevin is responsible for engaging in Title IX sexual harassment.
 - After receiving the Hearing Officer's determination, Kevin feels that the Hearing Officer had a conflict of interest that affected the outcome of the grievance process. He submits an appeal request to the Title IX Coordinator.
- What steps does the Title IX Coordinator need to take with respect to the appeal?
